

To those who are not living with their spouse due to domestic violence: to make sure you get the 100,000 yen government handout, you need to complete a procedure. The deadline for this procedure is April 30th!

To all foreigners who are a victim of domestic violence

Even if you don't live with your spouse, for example due to domestic violence, you can still receive a special cash handout of 100,000 yen per person. The procedure required to receive this handout is explained below. If you do not complete the procedure, it is not possible to get the handout. The deadline is on April 30th.

Please call the city hall or town hall as soon as possible.

◆What is the special cash handout?

The special cash handout is a subsidy that can easily and quickly be applied for and is meant to financially support households.

◆Why do I have to complete this procedure?

If you do not complete the procedure by April 30, you cannot receive this subsidy. If you live separately for reasons such as domestic violence, you must complete the procedure.

*If the head of household applies first, you cannot receive this subsidy.

<Required items and documents>

- Documents to verify your identity (passport, residence card, my number card)
- Proof of your current address (If you have children, you also need proof of the address where the children live.)
- The address of your spouse

<What you must do>

- ① Call the city hall or town hall in the area where you live.
  - * If you are worried about your Japanese language skill, please call the Center for Multicultural Society in Saga (0952-22-7830).
- ② Decide when to go to the city hall or town hall.
- ③ Go to the division that handles "Domestic Violence Victim Reports" at the city hall or town hall.
  - *a Domestic Violence Victim Reports is called "DV higai moushide kakuninsho" in Japanese.
- ④ Ask the appropriate division to create a "Domestic Violence Victim Report".

It is not yet known from when you apply for the special cash handout of 100,000 yen. Please feel free to ask the clerk when requesting a Domestic Violence Victim Reports. When the applications open for the 100,000 yen handout, please bring the "Domestic Violence Victim Report" to the city hall or town hall in the area where you live.

If you have any problems at the city hall or town hall, please call the number below. We can interpret for you.

*Tel.: 0952-22-7830 *email: info@spira.or.jp

*Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/spira.saga/>

*LINE: <https://lin.ee/bGc4sGc>

Saga Prefecture International Relations Association 【SPIRA】