

2020-21 Southern Indiana Japanese School (SIJS) Exchange Program Recruitment Summary

December 10, 2019

1. General Idea:

The Southern Indiana Japanese School (SIJS) in Evansville, Indiana, was founded when a Japanese company established a plan so that the children of the Japanese employees could study Japanese, social studies, math, and English using the textbooks used at the schools in Japan for the time they return to Japan. At present children of employees from several companies attend SIJS. The school is managed by the University of Southern Indiana (USI). We have about 55 students and 12 teachers. Most years we need to hire one-five new teachers.

This exchange program provides a means for the people who want to study abroad to study at the University of Southern Indiana (USI) to acquire a degree while teaching at SIJS. The cost of studying at USI is partially covered through this program.

2. Period of Time You Study at USI:

The selected applicant(s) generally study at USI for two years. Those selected for the coming period will study and teach from July 24, 2020 till the end of June, 2022. SIJS has 47 school days. In 2020-2021 calendar, SIJS has classes on 42 Saturdays, and one Friday in May, three Fridays in June, and one Friday in August.

The selected applicant(s) may study at USI for one year. Those selected will study and teach from July 24, 2020 till the end of June, 2021.

3. Volume of Recruitment

At this time, SIJS expects to hire four people.

4. Qualification to Apply and Study at USI:

(1) Applicants need to have an associate degree or bachelor degree, since they need to complete a bachelor or master degree in two years. We will select people who exceed USI's minimum score on TOEFL. Applicants' transcripts will be evaluated and those who are considered to be able to successfully pursue degrees at USI will be selected. The applicant with the associate degree will pursue the bachelor's degree and the applicant with the bachelor's degree will pursue the second bachelor's degree or the master's degree. The applicant who will pursue the master's degree might need to take the GRE test depending on the course. He/she might need to take the higher score of GRE than the standard score. Current college students who have completed the credits of two years at college may apply for this program.

Minimum test score to be admitted to USI

	Person to pursue undergraduate course	Person to pursue graduate course
TOEFL Paper test	525	550
TOEFL Computerized test	197

Those applying should immediately begin studying for the TOEFL. He/she should prepare to apply for the TOEFL. The TOEFL code for USI is "1335."

(2) We would like the applicants who would like to study at the College of Nursing and Health Professions to express their wish when they apply for this program. USI will decide whether the applicant is admitted to study at the College of Nursing and Health Professions or not after reviewing the transcripts at the university in Japan.

5. Courses and Cost:

The cost below is an estimate for the 2020-2021 academic year. It is likely that some costs will increase. USI pays only for the items below.

(1) Undergraduate Course: USI pays the following for the person pursuing the bachelor's degree for two years.

ITEMS THAT USI PAYS	AMOUNT
Tuition and Qualified Fees: Actual to a Maximum of 30 Undergraduate Credit Hours per Academic Year	$19,622
Stipend	$5,600
Health Insurance Fee	$1,522
University Service Fee	$60
Estimated Total for 2020-21*	$26,804

*The tuition estimate above assumes no qualified fees.

(2) Graduate Course: USI pays the following for the person pursuing the master's degree for two years.

ITEMS THAT USI PAYS	AMOUNT
Tuition and Qualified Fees: Actual to a Maximum of 18 Graduate Credit Hours per Academic Year	$14,129
Stipend	$5,600
Health Insurance Fee	$1,522
University Service Fee	$60
Estimated Total for 2020-21*	$21,311

*The tuition estimate above assumes no qualified fees.

(3) Intensive English Program (IEP): Selected applicants who need to raise their TOEFL scores to qualify for an undergraduate or graduate course can study IEP at USI for about one year. USI will pay as follows:

ITEMS THAT USI PAYS	AMOUNT
IEP Tuition (*2021 spring semester)	$5,900
Stipend	$5,600
Health Insurance Fee	$1,522
University Service Fee	$30
Total for 2020-21	$13,052

*The individual is responsible for the 2020 fall semester IEP tuition in the 2020-2021 academic year.

6. Cost an Individual Pays

The cost below is an estimate for the 2020-2021 academic year. It is likely that some costs will increase.

(1) The estimate that an individual who studies in the undergraduate course or in the graduate course at USI pays, regardless of program, is estimated as follows:

ITEMS	AMOUNT
Textbooks and Supplies (varies by individual)	$1,100
Fees (Application Fee, Enrollment Fee, Matriculation Fee, Student Activity Fee, Transportation and Parking Fee, Health Center Fee, Counselling Center Fee, Assessment Fee, Apartment Application Fee, International Student Fee, Housing Student Activity Fee)	$1,690
Housing in 4 people/2 bedroom Apartment-12 months*	$7,566
Full meal plan for Academic Year-12 months (Other meal plans are	$6,705 also available, or the teacher may choose to do his/her own cooking. The estimate of self-cooking is $2,700.)

Tax
Estimated Total for 2020-21	$17,061+tax

*In 2019-2020 recruitment, a faculty rate was applied to the student/instructors. The student/instructor could live in a 2 people/2 bedroom with $6600 if she/he lived for 12 months. However, in 2020-2021 recruitment and the recruitments in the future, the faculty rate has been abolished. The housing rate is the case when a student/instructor lives in a 4 people/2 bedroom at USI apartment house for 12 months. In 4 people/2 bedroom, 2 students share one bedroom and 4 students share a living room and a kitchen.

(2) The estimate that an individual who studies IEP at USI pays is as follows:

ITEMS	AMOUNT
2020 fall semester tuition	$5,900
Fees (Application Fee, Enrollment Fee, Matriculation Fee, Student Activity Fee, Transportation and Parking Fee, Health Center Fee, Counselling Center Fee, Assessment Fee, Apartment Application Fee, International Student Fee, Housing Student Activity Fee)	$1,838
Housing in 4 people/2 bedroom Apartment-12 months*	$7,566
Full meal plan for Academic Year-12 months (Other meal plans are also available, or the teacher may choose to do his/her own cooking. The estimate of self-cooking is $2,700.)	$6,705
Tax
Estimated Total for 2020-21	$22,009+tax

*The conditions of housing is the same as the conditions of the people who study in the undergraduate course or in the graduate course.

In the past, most IEP students were able to achieve the necessary English fluency in two semesters. However, some IEP students were able to achieve satisfactory English in one semester. In this case, the individuals switch to the undergraduate or graduate course for spring 2021. An individual is responsible for the 2020 fall semester tuition even if she/he completes IEP in one semester. In the event someone required summer school to complete IEP, the individual is responsible for the additional summer school fee.

(3) Other Costs

- a. All costs not included above, including personal expenses, taxes, airfare, other travel, visa, TOEFL, etc., are the responsibility of the individual.
- b. If the applicant would like to live in the off-campus apartment house after living in the on-campus apartment house for one year, she/he can do that. However, the taxi to go to SIJS on Saturday is not available if you live in the off-campus apartment house.
- c. USI is located in the outskirts of Evansville. It takes about 8 minutes to go to the closest shopping center by car. The bus leaves USI main campus every 30 minutes on weekdays during the semesters. However, during the summer vacation (between mid-May and late August), fall break, Thanksgiving holidays, and Winter Recess, the bus does not leave the main campus. During the vacations and holidays, the availability of the restaurants and fast food stores is limited. Certain period of Winter Recess no restaurant is available. Therefore, some students in the exchange program pay to buy a car and share the car. The students who do not own a car ask their friends for ride or use a taxi.
- d. The health insurance that USI provides does not include the insurance the eye-doctor nor the dentist. However, the students can purchase the dental and eye discount card.

7. Classes and Visa Status

(1) Undergraduate Studies

USI pays for up to 30 undergraduate credit hours per academic year for the individual who studies in the undergraduate course. Students may take up to 15 credit hours each in fall and spring semesters. Students must take a minimum of 12 credit hours per semester to meet visa status requirements. Undergraduate students may take three hours in summer school if they take fewer than 15 hours in fall or spring.

(2) Graduate Studies

USI pays for up to 18 graduate credit hours per academic year for the individual who studies in the graduate course. Students may take up to nine credit hours each in fall and spring semesters. Students must take a minimum of six credit hours per semester to meet visa status requirements. The total hours required for completion varies from one graduate degree to another. Generally, a degree cannot be completed in two years by taking six hours per semester. Sometimes it is hard to take nine hours in the first fall semester. In that case graduate students may take six hours in 2020 fall semester and three hours in 2021 summer school. These three hours are included in the 18 hours that USI pays per academic year.

(3) Credit Hours and Degree

He/she needs to consult his/her advisor to find how many credit hours are required to complete the degree and what classes he/she needs to take. He/she needs to visit the International Programs and Services for advice.

8. Class Cancellation

Class registration occurs before the semester starts. Occasionally, a student may need to cancel his/her class after the registration due to his/her circumstances. USI has a refund schedule that varies from a 100% refund to no refund, depending on how early in the semester classes are cancelled. Each individual is responsible for confirming the refund schedule each semester and is responsible to pay any portion of tuition not refunded.

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN INDIANA LETTER OF AGREEMENT

This agreement between the University of Southern Indiana (“USI”) and ( ) (“Student Instructor”) sets forth arrangements for the Student Instructor to teach at USI’s Southern Indiana Japanese School (“SIJS”) while studying at USI through the Japanese School program. In exchange for certain benefits and compensation from USI, the Student Instructor shall provide instructional services to USI/SIJS.

If the Student Instructor’s TOEFL score is below the USI/SIJS standard, the Student Instructor agrees to enroll in the Intensive English Program offered at USI. When a satisfactory level of English proficiency is achieved, the Student Instructor will enroll in appropriate USI degree credit courses.

The SIJS calendar includes 42 Saturdays and five Fridays from July 26, 2019 through June 30, 2020, for a total of 47 teaching days. The SIJS calendar is attached. The first-year Student Instructor is expected to report to the SIJS on July 16, 2019 for orientation. Regular hours are 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

Each teaching day consists of six 45-minute periods. The Student Instructor will teach three subjects chosen by the SIJS principal from the following: Japanese, math, social studies, and life (“seikatsu”) in grades 1-9; Japanese, math, and English in grades 10 and 11; math, English, and essay (“shoronbun”) in grade 12. Special Supporting Class may be assigned. On occasion, combined classes may be assigned. In addition to the regular teaching assignment, the Student Instructor will be in charge of a home room. Other teaching or administrative duties may also occasionally be assigned by the SIJS principal, subject to a twenty (20) hours per week restriction while USI classes are in session.

Specific teaching duties include:

- Preparing an annual teaching plan to be approved by the principal at the beginning of the school year;

- Preparing lesson plans for each class to be submitted to the principal every week;
- Leading student participation in SIJS events such as the literature contest and presentations to parents;
- Participating in teachers' meetings at the beginning of each school day;
- Grading homework and papers and recording and maintaining student grades according to the SIJS system;
- Ensuring the safety of the students while in class and at recess; going to the classroom by 8:50 a.m. When the students are in the classroom, stay in the classroom with the students. When leaving the classroom, leave with the students or ask another teacher to supervise the students. When moving to another classroom, move in the order decided by the principal
- Having lunch with the students and supervising students' cleaning of the lunch room;
- Attending after-school teachers' meetings and professional development events as specified in the SIJS calendar;
- Providing supplementary instruction after school when necessary;
- Meeting with parents and other teachers to discuss student progress;
- Contacting the parents of his or her students on days when school is cancelled.

All work performed must be performed on-campus or on a facility controlled by USI and for a program operated or controlled by USI. All hours worked by the Student Instructor may not exceed twenty (20) hours during any workweek while USI classes are also in session. Work for purposes of the twenty (20) hour per week limitation shall include all duties listed above as well as all other assigned teaching or administrative duties. Therefore, the Student Instructor agrees not to work in excess of twenty (20) hours during any workweek while USI classes are also in session. The Student Instructor who is interested in accepting a tutoring position at USI must seek prior approval from the SIJS director and Outreach and Engagement. Tutoring hours are to be limited to no more than six per week. Student instructors who are enrolled in one or more summer courses may not tutor during the weeks when SIJS classes are held on both Friday and Saturday. Certain exceptions to these location and hours limitations may be available in limited circumstances for Student Instructors in J-1 Student status for USI-approved Academic Training during a period when USI classes are not in session or for unforeseen economic circumstances; such exceptions are available only for J-1 Student status and the Student Instructor agrees to seek USI's approval and to abide by USI's determination of eligibility for such employment.

In return for providing the services described and meeting the other conditions of this Letter of Agreement, USI will provide the following compensation and benefits.

Compensation and Benefits for the 2019-2020 academic year will be:

Tuition and Qualified Fees – Intensive English Program tuition for Spring 2020: $5,900

Note: this is a taxable benefit

University Service Fee.....	$30
Stipend (for books, meals, other expenses) .....	$5,600
Insurance – Actual Cost Currently Estimated At .....	$1,522
Total	$13,052 plus Qualified Fees

The Student Instructor is responsible for Intensive English tuition and other fees for Fall 2019,

When the Student Instructor qualifies for either undergraduate or for graduate courses, the following will apply:

Compensation and Benefits for subsequent years (adjusted for any rate changes) will be:

Tuition and Qualified Fees –

Actual to a Maximum of EITHER 18 Graduate Credit Hours per Academic Year: $14,129

OR Actual to a Maximum of 30 Undergraduate Credit Hours per Academic Year: $19,622

Stipend (for books, meals, other expenses) .....	$5,600
Insurance – Actual Cost Currently Estimated At .....	$1,522

University Service Fee.....

$60

Total= $21,311 plus Qualified Fees (if graduate student) OR $26,804 plus Qualified Fees (if undergraduate student)

The Tuition and Qualified Fees estimate above assumes no qualified fees and tuition of 18 hours per academic year for graduate students and 30 hours per academic year for undergraduate students at USI's current rates. Qualified Fees are those fees that are considered to be qualified educational expenses by the rules established by the U.S. government Internal Revenue Service (IRS). An example of a Qualified Fee, which USI will pay, is a laboratory fee associated with a Biology class; an example of a non-qualified fee, which the Student Instructor will pay, is the fee USI charges for student activities. The actual value of tuition waived may be lower than the estimate above if the Student Instructor enrolls in fewer than 18 graduate credit hours of classes or in fewer than 30 undergraduate credit hours of classes per academic year since USI waives only tuition and qualified fees actually incurred up to the stated maximum. Actual tuition and qualified fees may be higher than the estimate if the Student Instructor enrolls in the maximum of 18 hours per academic year (as graduate student) or the maximum of 30 hours per academic year (as undergraduate student) and also incurs qualified fees paid by the University. The value of USI's waiver will also be higher if the tuition rate for a given academic year is higher than the rates in effect at the time this Letter of Agreement was created. The academic year is defined as the Fall Semester through the 3rd semester of the following Summer Semester (i.e. includes Fall 2019, Spring 2020, Summer 2020 Terms I, II, and III).

It is common for the Student Instructor to enroll in 9 hours per semester (as a graduate student) or 15 hours per semester (as an undergraduate student); however as long as the student instructor doesn't exceed 18 hours per academic year (as a graduate student) or 30 hours per academic year (as an undergraduate student), the student may take fewer or more than 9 hours or 15 hours, respectively in a given semester with the following below requirements:

- The Student Instructor may enroll in summer school as long as the total hours in the academic year before summer school plus the hours in summer school are within the maximum of 18 hours per academic year (as a graduate student) or the maximum of 30 hours per academic year (as an undergraduate student).

- The Student Instructor needs to enroll in 6 hours per semester (as a graduate student) or 12 hours per semester (as an undergraduate student) in each semester so that she/he will not lose her/his visa status. For example, the Student Instructor may enroll in 6 hours (as graduate student) in the fall semester, 9 hours in the spring semester and 3 hours in summer school. Or, the Student Instructor may enroll in 12 hours (as undergraduate student) in the fall semester, 12 hours in the spring semester and 6 hours in summer school.
- If the Student Instructor completes IEP program after the first half of the semester, then the Student Instructor needs to enroll in 6 undergraduate hours in the rest of the semester so that the Student Instructor should not lose her/his visa status.
- The student instructor may not borrow hours from the next academic year to enroll in summer school. If the student instructor would like to enroll in more credit hours than the maximum of 18 hours in an academic year (as a graduate student) or the maximum of 30 hours in an academic year (as an undergraduate student), she/he will have to pay for the credit hours by herself/himself and the cost of the tuition is out of state tuition.

The Student Instructor is responsible for his or her own housing arrangements and for his or her own transportation for non-work purposes. Housing on USI's campus is available at USI's published rates (see <https://www.usi.edu/housing/housing-options/2019-20-housing-rates/>). If selecting USI housing, the Student Instructor agrees to timely payment of all amounts due. USI will provide transportation from USI main campus to and from the nearest bus route to SJS; the value of that transportation benefit will appear on the monthly check to ensure proper taxation.

The Student Instructor agrees to sign a payroll deduction form in order to pay directly for the required international insurance from the Compensation provided to the Instructor through USI payroll. All other expenses, including but not limited to housing, meals, books, non-qualified fees, supplies, taxes, and travel between Japan and the United States are the responsibility of the Student Instructor.

All compensation is subject to the tax laws of the United States and the State of Indiana. Under the terms of this agreement and as long as the Student Instructor's valid F-1 or J-1 Student nonimmigrant status is maintained, USI will treat qualified educational expenses over the fair market value of services rendered as exempt from taxation and reporting to the Internal Revenue Service. USI Payroll withholds taxes as required by U.S. law, for all compensation and benefits (except USI tuition and qualified fees) but the Student Instructor's individual circumstances (including factors which cannot be anticipated or accommodated by USI's Payroll system) may affect actual tax liability. The Student Instructor must file a U.S. tax form annually as required by U.S. law, and the Student Instructor is responsible for paying any additional taxes owed or retaining any refund issued. USI recommends that the Student Instructor consult with a professional tax advisor experienced in working with taxation issues on behalf of international students, scholars, and employees. Taxation of international employees differs in many respects from taxation of U.S. Citizens and lawful permanent residents, and may vary depending on immigration status, length of time in the U.S. during the calendar year and for parts of a three year period, length of time in the U.S for certain specified purposes, and the applicable tax treaty in effect between the U.S. and the individual's country of citizenship, and type, source, and amount of income, including income sources outside USI, if applicable.

This agreement is contingent upon the Student Instructor maintaining proper F-1 or J-1 Student nonimmigrant status, student status at USI, and good standing as a teacher at SIJS. The Student Instructor agrees to notify the University Executive Director of Human Resources and the Director of SIJS in writing before filing any petition or submitting any application to the U.S. government to change or adjust his or her immigration status. The Student Instructor also agrees to notify USI's Executive Director of Human Resources and the Director of SIJS in writing immediately if at risk of loss of student status. Reasons for termination, in addition to loss of nonimmigrant or student status, include, but are not limited to, tardiness, absenteeism, and failure to cooperate with the principal or other teachers.

Assuming satisfactory performance at SIJS and in USI classes, the Student Instructor is welcome to continue teaching at SIJS and studying at USI in the 2020-2021 academic year.
