

SAGA Shrine and SUMO Tour in SAGA City

November 3, 2015
Tuesday (Public Holiday)
8AM-10:30AM

Where: SAGA Shrine
Add: 2-10-43 Matsubara Saga City
Capacity: 15 foreign residents
Fee: Free ※300 Yen for Japanese stew
(a type of nabe , a pot dish that sumo wrestlers eat), if you want to eat.

Do you know culture and history of SAGA? Here is a chance to know more about SAGA Shrine which was built in 1933 to worship Nabeshima Naomasa (鍋島直正) and Nabeshima Naohiro (鍋島直大) who was the 10th and final daimyo of SAGA Domain in Hizen Province, Kyoshu, back in Bakumatsu period.

※Bakumatsu period refers to the final years of the Edo period when the Tokugawa bakufu ended between 1853 and 1867.

Also, in this tour you watch sumo wrestlers training upfront!

After you watch the training , you will have a chance to talk with sumo wrestlers and take pictures with them. Join us for this fun event!

※Japanese volunteer translators support you as a tour guide.
